National Assn. of Secondary School Principals (NASSP), Principal's Leadership Award

Principal's Leadership Award Scholarship Program

The National Association of Secondary School Principals (NASSP) and Herff Jones, Inc. are proud to co-sponsor the 2009–10 Principal's Leadership Award (PLA). This scholarship award affords high school principals the opportunity to recognize a student leader by nominating him or her for a national scholarship. For more information about Herff Jones, Inc., visit www.herffjones.com.

Awards:

Scholarships ranging from $1,000 to $12,000 will be awarded to 100 outstanding seniors from all 50 states, the District of Columbia, and Puerto Rico. NASSP and Herff Jones have awarded the PLA scholarships since 1988, providing more than $3.5 million in scholarship awards to outstanding students from across the nation. Students cannot apply for this award but must be nominated by their high school. High school principals or their designee may nominate only one senior per school to compete.

Eligibility:

High school principals, assistant principals or their designee may nominate one senior per school for this award. Nominees should be in the top 20% of their class and demonstrate leadership.

Deadline:

The postmark deadline for nomination materials is December 4, 2009.

Principals:

Posted below you will find instructions for nominating one of your seniors. Remember in selecting your candidate that this is a “leadership” award and your nominee should possess strong leadership qualities.

TEXAS MUTUAL INSURANCE COMPANY SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAM

Texas Mutual Insurance Company
Office of the President
6210 East Highway 290
Austin, TX 78273
(800)859-5995, ext. 3907
<http://www.texasmutual.com>

Texas Mutual Insurance Company is a workers' compensation insurance carrier. The scholarship program provides up to $4,000 per individual per semester for tuition and fees to (1) surviving unmarried spouses and unmarried children of an individual who died as a result of a compensable on-the-job injury while working for one of Texas Mutual Insurance Company's policyholders, (2) policyholder employees who qualify for lifetime income benefits pursuant to the Texas Workers' Compensation Act and (3) family members of injured employees who qualify for lifetime income benefits. All awards are completely discretionary, and several factors may be considered before offering a scholarship, including the applicant's economic need, standardized test scores, and high school or college academic performance. Additionally, the recipient must maintain at least a 2.50 grade point average for the duration of the scholarship period. If you are interested in more information about the scholarship program, please visit the Injured Worker section of our website (listed above) or contact Doris Limon at (800)859-5995, ext. 3820.

Scholarship Criteria

- Applicants must be either (1) a surviving unmarried spouse or unmarried child of an employee who died as a result of a compensable work-related accident or illness while working for a Texas Mutual policyholder; (2) a person whose injuries qualify them for lifetime income benefits under the Texas Workers' Compensation Act or their spouse or child.
- Children must be younger than 25 years of age and entering or enrolled in an undergraduate program, technical or vocational school for the semester for which they are applying.
- Surviving spouses still eligible for workers' compensation benefits are also eligible for scholarship consideration.
- All applicants must meet academic standards set by the Scholarship Committee.

Scholarship Distribution Tuition and fee scholarship awards will be paid directly to the college, university, technical or vocational school in the recipient's name. Scholarship awards may vary depending on the needs and educational expenses of the student. Scholarships are intended to cover normal undergraduate, technical and vocational school tuition and fees. Financial assistance for course-related books and supplies is also available up to $500 per semester; students must provide satisfactory documentation for reimbursement.

*The scholarship program and all awards are totally discretionary and may be altered or discontinued at any time without notice.

Texas Police Corps Scholarship

Police Corps:
Competitive

Scholarship

Type: Law Enforcement

The Police Corps was created to help address violent crime by increasing the number of officers with advanced education and training who are assigned to community patrol. The central component of the Police Corps is the provision of financial assistance and basic police training to college students who agree to serve as officers for four years, along with financial assistance to participating police departments and sheriff's offices.

The Police Corps is a Federal program designed to address violent crime by increasing the number of officers with advanced education and training who serve on community patrol. The program has 2 major components.

The Police Corps provides scholarships of up to $3,750 per academic year on a competitive basis to students who agree to earn their bachelor's degrees, complete approved Police Corps training, and then serve for four years on patrol, as assigned, with law enforcement agencies in areas of great need.

Description: The Police Corps reduces local costs of hiring and training excellent new officers by providing funds to states to develop and provide 16 to 24 weeks of rigorous residential Police Corps training for each participant.

To participate, a state lead agency designated by the Governor must submit a state plan for approval. Individuals apply to the state where they are willing to serve. Agencies in areas designated by the state as "areas of great need" are eligible to apply to the state to hire Police Corps graduates and receive annual financial assistance.

See the website for further details.
