

Articulation Agreement between

Paris Junior College and

Texas A & M University-Commerce

This agreement confirms the transferability of courses in the

Associate of Arts in Teaching (AAT)

degree programs awarded by Paris Junior College to the applicable

Bachelor of Arts or Science

Teacher Certification Degree Programs

at Texas A&M University-Commerce. This agreement becomes effective upon the date of receipt of the signatures requested below, and shall apply for students transferring from Paris Junior College to Texas A&M University-Commerce beginning Fall 2006 Semester. This articulation agreement shall remain effective until terminated via execution of a written request by either party. Said termination date will be effective at the end of the next long term semester following the date of the notice of termination.

SECTION 1

Core Curriculum Component for all AAT Curricula

If a student successfully completes the core curriculum at Paris Junior College, that block of courses will be transferred to Texas A&M University-Commerce and will be substituted for the core curriculum requirements at Texas A&M University-Commerce either by the award of equivalent course credit or by degree plan substitution. A student shall receive academic credit for each of the courses transferred and will not be required to take additional core curriculum courses at Texas A&M University-Commerce unless the Texas A&M University-Commerce core is a larger core curriculum than at Paris Junior College. The Core Curriculum Chart below is for informational purposes and does not preclude, as stated above, the substitution of non-equivalent core courses taught at the Paris Junior College to core curriculum at Texas A&M University-Commerce.
