

Emergency Medical Services

Paris Junior College offers an Associate's Degree of Applied Science in Emergency Medical Services and a Paramedic certificate for Emergency Medical Technician. Careers in this field may be found with fire departments, public and private emergency medical services, hospitals, industrial safety, and flight services. Graduates are eligible to apply for the National Registry of EMT certification examination. Students seeking admission should contact the EMS faculty, Health Occupations Department or Advising & Counseling Department at PJC.

The Emergency Medical Technician-Paramedic program is accredited by the Commission on Accreditation of Allied Health Education Programs (<http://www.caahep.org>), upon the recommendation of the Committee on Accreditation of Educational Programs for the Emergency Medical Services Professions (<http://www.coaemsp.org>). The Commission may be reached at: Commission on Accreditation of Allied Health Education Programs, 9355 - 113th St. N, #7709, Seminole, FL 33775, 727.210.2350, <http://www.caahep.org>.
