Secretary
The primary objectives of the College District investment policy are the preservation of capital and protection of principal, safety of funds and investments, maintenance of sufficient liquidity, diversification to avoid unreasonable or avoidable risks, and yield.

The College District’s portfolio shall be designed and managed in accordance with the following “prudent person” standard of care. Investments shall be made with judgment and care, under prevailing circumstances, that a person of prudence, discretion, and intelligence would exercise in the management of the person’s own affairs; not for speculation, but for investment, considering the probable safety of capital as well as the probable income to be derived. This prudent person standard shall apply to the management of all College District funds.

To meet the investment objectives of the College District, the maturity of investments shall be targeted to coincide with the cash flow needs of the College District. The investment portfolio shall be diversified to reduce the risk of loss of investment income from overconcentration of assets in a specific issue, a specific issue size, or a specific class of securities.

Nevertheless, the College District recognizes that in a diversified portfolio, occasional measured losses are inevitable and must be considered within the context of the overall portfolio’s investment return. Also, it is intended that investments in all funds shall be managed in such a way that any market price losses resulting from interest rate volatility shall be offset by income received from the balance of the portfolio over a reasonable period of time as determined by the Board.

The College District’s investment authority is derived from the Public Funds Investment Act. Effective September 1, 1995, College District funds, including bond proceeds and pledged revenue to the extent allowed by law, may be invested in the following:

1. Obligations of the United States, its agencies, or instrumentalities, except the following:
   a. Obligations whose payment represents the coupon payments on the outstanding principal balance of the underlying mortgage-backed security collateral and that pays no principal;
   b. Obligations whose payment represents the principal stream of cash flow from the underlying mortgage-backed security collateral and that bears no interest;
   c. Collateralized mortgage obligations that have a stated final maturity date of greater than ten years; and
d. Collateralized mortgage obligations with an interest rate that is determined by an index that adjusts opposite to the changes in a market index.

2. Repurchase Agreements and Reverse Repurchase Agreements — College District funds may be invested in fully collateralized repurchase agreements and reverse repurchase agreements having a defined termination date and secured by any obligation of the United States, its agencies, or its instrumentalities, including certain mortgage-backed securities of the U.S. The repurchase and reverse repurchase agreement transactions are to be placed only with primary government securities dealers or state or national banks doing business in the state of Texas.

3. Certificates of Deposit — College District funds may be invested in fully collateralized certificates of deposit issued by state or national banks domiciled in the state of Texas or savings and loans domiciled in the state of Texas and guaranteed by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation or its successor. The certificates must be styled in the name of the College District. Collateral for the time deposits may be in the form of obligations of the United States, its agencies, or instrumentalities; direct obligations of the state of Texas, its agencies, or instrumentalities; other state and local government bonds or obligations rated not less than “A” or its equivalent; or other obligations fully guaranteed by, insured by, or backed by the full faith and credit of the state of Texas or the United States, including certain mortgage-backed securities.

4. Money Market Mutual Funds — College District funds may be invested in a no-load money market mutual fund that is regulated by the Securities and Exchange Commission. The money market fund must be rated “AAA” or its equivalent by at least one nationally recognized investment rating firm. The money market fund must also maintain a dollar-weighted average stated maturity of 90 days or fewer, and the maintenance of a stable net asset value of $1 shall be included in its investment objectives.

5. Local Investment Pools — College District funds may be invested in the Texas Local Government Investment Pool (TexPool).

6. Commercial Paper — College District funds may be invested in commercial paper if the commercial paper is rated:
   - Not less than A-1 or P-1; or
• An equivalent rating by at least two nationally recognized credit rating agencies or one nationally recognized credit rating agency when fully secured by an irrevocable letter of credit issued by a bank organized and existing under the laws of the United States or any state.

Maximum Maturities

The College District shall normally limit final maturities on any securities to five years or less. To the extent possible, the College District shall attempt to match its investments with anticipated cash flow requirements. Unless matched to a specific cash flow, the College District shall not directly invest in securities maturing more than five years from the date of purchase. Excluding any bond proceeds, the maximum average dollar-weighted maturity shall be 500 days. For bond proceeds, the average dollar-weighted maturity shall be governed by the anticipated timing of the use of the proceeds in conjunction with consideration of arbitrage issues. The College District shall strive to minimize the average dollar-weighted maturity of the bond proceeds within the confines of those two criteria.
